Mr. Helper I have been expelled from the School taught by William McNeill, Jr. in Robeson county by a majority of the Trustees of said School, for which they will not give me any reason;—therefore, I design showing to the good citizens of my county, that no charge of malconduct or disobedience has ever been brought against me. I am ready at any time to meet them, with sufficient testimony to establish my character as a pupil and citizen. I have passed my life through many Schools, from a child to manhood, where peace and harmony dwelt, and tranquility subsisted; and now I have to bear the stigma of expulsion, as I am induced to believe, for the promotion of a man who has always been the enemy of my father while in existence. If that is not the cause, I know none else. Yours, &c.

Some Swindlers have been counterfeiting this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of COMSTOCK & CO.; that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Sold by COMSTOCK & CO., 71 Maiden Lane, New York, and at the Fayetteville Book Store.

Curious Coincidence!—Law!—A proof of the 'glorious uncertainty of the law,' was shown at the last quarter sessions for the county of Dorset. Two men were indicted jointly for a felony; upon being called on to plead guilty or not guilty, one of them pleaded "guilty" and the other "not guilty." At that moment an attorney stepped up to the prisoner who pleaded guilty, and told him he was employed to defend him; the prisoner then withdrew his plea of guilty and pleaded not guilty. The trial proceeded, and at the close the jury acquitted the one who had at first pleaded guilty, and convicted the one who had pleaded not guilty.

Opinion of an English Statesman on Free Trade.—Not a great while ago, when a proposition was brought before the British House of Commons by Ministers to reduce the duty upon French wines, Mr. Robertson, a distinguished member of that body, gave the following definition of the meaning of Free Trade:

"It was idle for us, he contended, to endeavor to persuade other nations to join with us in adopting the principles of what was called free trade. Other nations knew as well as the noble lord opposite, and those who acted with him, that what we meant by free trade was nothing more nor less than, by means of the great advantages we enjoyed, to get a monopoly of all their markets for our manufactures, and to prevent them, one and all, from ever becoming manufacturing nations."

A daughter of Patrick Henry, widow of Philip Aylett, of Virginia, died in that State recently at an advanced age.

Recently a miller, near Mobile, for some purpose or other, poured several pounds of melted lead into the eye of the runner-stone. The lead becoming loose and working between the stones, was ground up with the corn. The meal was consumed on the plantation of Mr. James G. Lyon, and a number of his negroes were poisoned by it, some of whom died, while others were palsied and altogether helpless.—It is said to be a common thing for millers to use lead in this way, and the misfortune just related ought to be a sufficient warning against it. A similar accident occurred recently in Europe.

Silk.—The bounty paid on silk from the Treasury of Massachusetts, this year, amounts to $3351 51. This is about one-third larger than last year.

The Drunkard and his Child.—A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer gives an affecting account of a drunkard who was picked up in Arch street, a day or two ago, dreadfully intoxicated. By his side stood a little boy, his son, seven or eight years of age, who touched the hearts of the spectators with his piteous appeals to his father to rise and go home with him. The little fellow clung round his neck, kissed him, and struggled in vain to raise the wretched man from his fallen position.

Ancient Egypt.—Egypt comprehended anciently, within limits of no very great extent, no fewer than twenty thousand inhabited cities! This is stated to have been the case under Amasis, when the number of inhabitants in them, according to the same account, was almost incredible. Its ancient kings are said to have kept armies of 300,000 men in their service.

Real Love.—Sir Robert Barclay, who commanded the British squadron in the battle of Lake Erie, was horribly mutilated by the wounds he received in that action, having lost his right arm and one of his legs. Previously to his leaving England, he was engaged to a young lady to whom he was tenderly attached. Feeling acutely on his return that he was a mere wreck, he sent a friend to the lady, informing her of his mutilated condition, and generously offering to release her from her engagement. "Tell him," replied the noble girl, "that I will joyfully marry him if he has only enough of body left to hold his soul."

The planet which we inhabit may well be called a beautiful world—as lovely in its details as it is wonderful in its formation. The very atmosphere which encircles it—the health, if I may so express it, which it pants forth into the blue sky—is a beautiful creation in itself, full of change and mystery, rich in sublime and impressive scenery, presenting us with problems of the highest interest and most difficult investigation, and furnishing us with innumerable themes for vast and sublime speculation, while other sciences can only be pursued under peculiar circumstances. While the botanist meets with many a desolate track, which will add no unknown blossom to his herbarium, and the geologist must pass over vast districts which present no point of interest to his eye, the meteorologist, wherever he travels, has a separate creation to explore. Every passing breeze may present him with some interesting phenomena—every sunrise conducts him into a new region, every sunset presents him with a new scene. In mountainous countries, where sheets of descending cloud so frequently conceal the scenery with an impenetrable veil, the interest which to others is destroyed, to him is only changed and lifted up, as it were the arm of the earth; he becomes familiar with the countenance of heaven, and in particular with the various appearances and phenomena which are peculiar to the skies of mountainous districts, which, being under the influence of accidental circumstances, perpetually changing, are full of beautiful effects of occult causes which render them interesting in a high degree to the eye of an attentive observer.—East India Magazine.

Legislature of N. Carolina.

IN SENATE.

THURSDAY, November 24.

A message was received from the House, transmitting the Governor's Message with the accompanying documents, and proposing to print one copy for each member, which was agreed to.

Mr. Morehead, from the Committee on Joint Rules of Order for the government of the two Houses, reported the Rules of the last Session without amendment; which Report was read and concurred in.

Mr. Morehead then called up the Resolution offered by him yesterday, which he proposed to amend, by striking out all after the word 'Resolved,' and inserting, "That the Comptroller report to this House, a tabular statement of the Public Taxes paid into the Treasury of the State by the citizens thereof, for the years 1837, '38, '39, '40, '41. That he set forth in such Report the aggregate amount of Public Taxes paid into the Public Treasury in the five years aforesaid; also, the average amount paid by each county in the State."

Which Resolution, after a few remarks from Messrs. Williams, Spruill, Edwards, and Joyner, was adopted.

Resolved, further, That the Secretary of State set forth in his Report a Tabular Statement of the aggregate population; also of the federal population of each County in this State.

Resolved, That the Clerk of this House, procure to be printed, for each member of the General Assembly one copy of the Act of Congress passed in the year 1842, and approved June 25th, 1842, entitled 'An Act for the apportionment of Representatives among the several States, according to the sixth Census.'

IN SENATE.

MONDAY, Nov. 28.

Mr. Rogers offered the following Preamble and Resolution; which was read and adopted:

Whereas, the contracted state of the Currency of this State, the heavy indebtedness of the people, and the unproductiveness of the soil this present year, all conspire to render it necessary and expedient that the Legislature should adopt some means of relief.

Resolved therefore, That the committee on the Judiciary be instructed to report a Bill to the Senate, to stay the collection of debt under execution, to establish a valuation law, or some other measure, which will, in the opinion of said committee, afford the most instant and permanent relief to the citizens of this State.

Mr. Elliott, from the Committee on the Library, presented the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Joint Committee upon the public Library be instructed to inquire into the expediency of having printed, a Manuscript Volume in the Governor's Office, "Tabular Indexes to Colonial documents, relative to North Carolina," and that they report by Bill or otherwise.

Received from the House, the concurrence of that branch in the Senate's proposition, (with an amendment) to raise a Joint Select Committee on the part of each House, to whom shall be referred the Apportionment of the State into 9 Congressional Districts, with the following amendment: That said Committee shall be composed of one member from each of the present Congressional Districts.

A little spirit was infused into the Senate upon this; and a debate sprung up, in which Messrs. Morehead, Dockery, Spruill, Cooper and Reid participated. It was contended by the three former Senators, that it was not usage, for the House to return a Resolution amended, as one concurred in; the House ought either to have accepted the resolution entire, or rejected it.

The message finally, was laid upon the table.

Mr. Walker introduced a Bill, to alter the time of holding the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions in the county of Mecklenburg; which passed its first reading.

Messrs. Pasteur and Hodges were named the Committee on Engrossed Bills this week.

Adopted.

The balance of the sitting was spent in the following interesting procedure: A message was received by the Senate from the House, proposing to go into an election for a Colonel Commandant of the 15th Brigade of North Carolina militia; which Mr. Reid very promptly succeeded in getting laid upon the table. The House, (the Reporter believes,) having perceived its error, sent another message, wishing the Senate to concur in proceeding by joint ballot to elect a Colonel of Cavalry of the 15th Brigade, in which the Senate concurred, nominating Messrs. Miller and Pharr on its part, to superintend such election, and announced their proceedings by message to the House: when lo! yet another message from the House was received, naming its Committee, to vote for a Colonel Commandant of the 15th Brigade. Mr. Spruill proposed a rather tart message to be sent to the House, observing it was full time these repeated blunders should be promptly stopped; on motion of Mr. Edwards, however, who thought it would more comport with the dignity of the Senate, and respect to the House, the message last received was laid upon the table; the Speaker remarking, that the House, was, doubtless, then voting for Colonel of Cavalry.

Mr. Joyner moved to send a message to the House, stating the Senate's willingness to vote for a Colonel of Cavalry, and requesting the names of the members of its Committee; but perceiving, he said, by one of the rules of order, the House could amend its message, withdrew his motion.

On motion of Mr. Dockery, the Senate adjourned.

Will any gentleman at leisure, inform us how much these business-like proceedings upon the election of Samuel J. Neal, will cost the State. In our ignorance, we thought retrenchment was, in all things, to be the order of the day. Or, did the Party have such a surfeit by electing one-Hill to-day, that they instructed their officers, by their errors, to cause the balance of the day to be rendered ni-hil?

Mr. Joyner wished to know whether the message had been amended; when it was read; and

Mr. Dockery moved to have it returned to the House, with the non-concurrence of the Senate; pending which, a message was received from the House, asking leave to amend their message;—Agreed to; and Messrs. Miller and Pharr named as the Senate's Committee. The vote stood, for Neal 49; who subsequently being reported duly elected, is, after this war of words, Colonel of Cavalry of the 15th Brigade.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Mr. Cardwell rose, he said, to make a motion to which, he supposed, all would agree. He moved that a message be sent to the Senate, proposing to-day two weeks, at 12 o'clock to go into an election for Senator to Congress, in place of Wm. A. Graham, whose term expires on the 4th of March next; and nominated the Hon. Bedford Brown for the appointment. The question on the selection of a Senator was an important one, as the choice was irrevocable by the Legislature for six years, and he wished to give time for deliberation and for a full expression of the sense of the body. [Strange doctrine this, for men who speak of instructing Whigs out of their seats! But this is the doctrine for to-day—to-morrow, the circumstances may change; and "circumstances alter cases."] Several members were absent on account of sickness, or some other cause, and it would give them an opportunity of being present. The motion was carried.

Mr. T. R. Caldwell, from the Select Committee, made a report on the bill for erecting a new county by the name of McDowell, and submitted several amendments. The bill was then put on its second reading, and Mr. Barnes moved its indefinite postponement. Resolved further, That this Legislature fully subscribes to the sentiment, that that State which honestly owes a debt, and has, or can command, the means of paying, and refuses to pay because it cannot be compelled to do so, has already bartered Public Honor, and only awaits an increase of Price to barter Public Liberty.

On motion of Mr. Brummel,

Resolved, That a message be sent to the Senate, proposing to fix upon some plan for comparing the vote for Governor.

Mr. Joyner called up the Bill to revive the Act to incorporate the Weldon Rail Road Company; after an attempt to amend, by striking out the world ninety, and inserting fifty so as to make it read "fifty years" in the last section, (which was negatived,) the Bill passed its second reading.

And the Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Mr. Hoskins presented a bill, to prevent Sheriffs, or other lawful officers, with process from a Justice, from making return before a Justice out of the Captain's district in which the defendant resides. Read first time and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Walker, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, made a report on the bill for erecting a new County out of a portion of Lincoln, by the name of Catawba, recommending its passage. The bill was then put on its second reading, and Messrs. White, N. Wilson, and Francis advocated its passage.

Mr. Jones of Orange, moved to lay it on the table; which was lost.

Mr. Scales moved that a message be sent to the Senate, proposing on to-morrow, at 12 o'clock to go into an election for Solicitor General, and informing them that John F. Poindexter was in nomination; which was agreed to. And, on motion of Mr. McRae, the name of Cadwallader Jones, jr. was added.

U. S. Senator.—A message was received from the Senate, proposing to go into an election for Senator on Friday next, and informing the House that the Hon. R. M. Saunders was in nomination.

Mr. Cardwell moved to lay the message on the table; and stated that his object in making the motion to put off the election for two weeks, as he did on yesterday, was only to give time for deliberation and for all the members to be present.—The Ayes and Noes being called for, on the motion to lay on the table, it was decided in the negative, Ayes 39—Nays 72.

Mr. McRae then moved to amend, by substituting "Friday week," and appealed to the justice, liberality, and magnanimity of members to sustain him, in a manner which clearly showed that his candidate, who ever he be, was in great want of the necessary time to make such arrangements "in caucus" as would give him a living chance.

Mr. Barringer expressed himself favorably to a speedy election, for he thought it evident to every one, that nothing could be done for the interest of the State, until that was disposed of.

Mr. Avery made some remarks, in which he was understood to coincide with Mr. Barringer.

The Speaker then decided that Mr. McRae's motion was out of order, and the question recurring on the proposition of the Senate, the Ayes and Noes were called for, and it was decided in the affirmative —Yeas 72, Nays 38.

Not Powerless.—The election of Henry S. Clarke, Esq. of Beaufort, as Solicitor of the 2d Judicial Circuit, shows that although the Whigs are not able to elect their man, they are yet able, holding the balance of power, to defeat the Caucus nominees of the party. Mr. Rodman, a prominent young Lawyer, and the reputed Editor of the "Washington Republican," a bitter and violent Loco Foco print, was agreed on in Caucus as the Candidate of the Party; but the Whigs (with two exceptions we believe,) uniting with a few Democratic friends that stuck to Clark, despite the mandates of King Caucus, easily succeeded in electing him. Mr. Clark is, we understand, a Calhoun Democrat.—Raleigh Register.

Trouble in the Wigwam.—We alluded in our last, to the disaffection in the Loco Foco ranks, produced by certain injudicious appointments of the party, and by the ex parte operation of the Caucus system, the machinery of which does not appear to work so well as when Saunders, Brown, Strange, and the other old Anti-Jackson leaders, had the control of it. We are not, however, surprised at the wry faces which some of the party make. Discord is the legitimate child of such Parents, and division and weakness issue from their loins. The claims of needy Office seekers are too numerous to be gratified, and disappointment will engender hatred. Destitute of enlarged principles of action, and guided by no motive but self-interest, the disaffected will revolt and sigh over the credulity, which made them the miserable dupes of selfish demagogues. But the cause of virtue and truth will ultimately prevail. The ebb tide has already arrived to its utmost point, and will shortly be succeeded by a flood, that will bear on its bosom, in triumph and safety, the ark of sound political principles.

Raleigh Register.

The "Standard" exposes the "badness of his hand," by attempts to make capital out of a proposition to pay the expenses of a poor Doorkeeper, who came down here from the Mountains, thinking that, as he made a good officer at the last Session, he would, of course, be re-elected. There is a precedent for paying Doorkeepers, thus situated, and it was established by a "Democratic" Legislature, viz: that of 1833.—Here follows the Resolution:

Resolved, That the Public Treasurer pay John Lumsden the sum of twenty one dollars, being the allowance for his mileage and three days service as doorkeeper of the House of Commons during the present Session.

What will Mrs. Grundy say now.

Raleigh Register.

We have known for some time, but forgot to mention it, that Gen. Iredell declined to accept the appointment recently tendered him by the President.—Raleigh Register.

Rhode Island.—The new Constitution has been adopted by about 6,000 votes to 30 or 50. Providence gives it 1,606, Newport 400. An imperfect return from most of the towns (some of them including but the second, and a few only the first day's vote) gives 3,112 for and 21 in all against the Constitution.

BANKRUPTS.

The Fayetteville Observer publishes a list of applicants for the benefit of the bankrupt law, from the counties of Cumberland, Sampson, Bladen, Robeson, New Hanover, Montgomery, Moore, Davidson, Stokes, Rutherford, Davie, Surry, Richmond, Cabarrus, Rowan, Burke, Mecklenburg, Wilkes, Iredell, Stanly, Guilford, Rockingham, Lincoln and Caldwell, and gives the profession of each applicant. They are as follows:

Farmers,	84	Cabinet-makers,
Tanners and curriers,	2	Millwright,
Clerks,	10	Blacksmiths,
Tavern-keepers,	3	Grocers,
Shoemakers,	7	Painters,
Wheelwright,	1	Miners,
Merchants,	21	Joiner,
Carpenters,	8	Tinner,
Mechanics,	5	Coach-maker,
Physicians,	5	Carriage-maker,
Schoolmasters,	3	Chair-maker,
Tailors,	4	Wagon-makers,
Masons,	2	Teacher,
Saddlers,	4	Tobacco manufacturer,
Hatters,	2	Iron-master,
Laborers,	4	Without professions,

In all 206 applicants.

If it be true, as has been charged, that the bankrupt law was passed for the benefit of merchants and speculators, the farmers and operatives in this State are about to pervert the design of the framers of the law—they are taking precedence at something like the rate of 5 to 1.

We should like to see a complete list of all the applicants in the State with their several professions annexed; and, by the by, we should not care to know their politics. If then, from what has been said, it might be supposed that they are all a set of spec[u]lating Whigs—none of the real Democracy, farmers and mechanics of the country. There is, however, sometimes a difference between a prospective and retrospective view of the same subject. Our Democratic friends could easily see what was the design of Congress, and especially the Whigs, in passing this law, and how it would disgust the honest farmers and other operatives of the country. Now they can see how it works. Out of the 206 applicants published by the Observer, 21 are merchants, 2 grocers, 5 physicians, three schoolmasters, 2 clerks, 3 tavernkeepers, 1 teacher, and 4 gentlemen loafers—all the rest are farmers or mechanics!

We never were great advocates for a bankrupt law, particularly voluntary bankruptcy, but we wish always to be advocates of fairness and consistency.

Asheville Messenger.

A contemporary, in remarking on the fact that Col. Johnson, in his Speeches in Pennsylvania, supported a Tariff, says: "Johnson and Buchanan shout for Protection at the North, while Calhoun sails at the South under the banner of Free Trade, and yet their principles are the same, and whichever one is selected as a Candidate, will carry out the principles of the party! The principles assumes as many different compositions as ever Proteus did forms.

OBSERVER.

FAYETTEVILLE:

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1842.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

HENRY CLAY OF KENTUCKY.

VOTING FOR SENATOR.—We hear from Raleigh, that on Saturday last the Legislature twice voted for Senator without making a choice. The vote stood, on the first trial, for Graham, Whig, 70; for Brown, Van-Buren-Loco, 57; for Saunders, Calhoun-Loco, 36. Richard Dobbs Spaight, Loco, 1. On the second trial, Graham 67, (2 Whigs voting for Saunders,) Brown 58, Saunders 38.

The result is in utter doubt. The friends of the opposing Locofocos are bitterly arrayed, and rumor (Locofoco rumor) says that the two candidates have themselves had a personal altercation, and are uncovering in abuse of each other. All attempts in caucus to reconcile the difficulty, and even a proposal made by Brown to Saunders that both should withdraw, and let some third person be taken up, all have failed. Brown and Saunders are both on the ground, electioneering might and main, by day and night. Mr Graham is not in Raleigh.

Great interest is doubtless felt by the Calhoun and Van Buren factions out of the State, in the result of the election. Benton and Wright are said to have written letters urging the election of Brown and declaring the election of Saunders, who is currently reported to have declared, that he would not support Brown under any circumstances. So they go.

A spirited debate sprung up in the House on Saturday last, on the subject of "Barnes's Hobby," a repeal of his resolution of last Session relative to the Literary Fund. As before, the resolution calls on the Governor to report; but on motion of Mr Stringer, it was amended so as to require a committee to examine and report upon the subject.

P. S. Since the above was in type, we are favored with a letter from Raleigh, from which we make the following extracts:—

RALEIGH, Dec'r 5.

There was a most spicy discussion on Saturday, on the question of investigating the Literary Board's case, the alleged mismanagement of which has furnished demagogues with so much capital. The Locofocos, after starting the proposition, voted almost to a man against an amendment to make the investigation full. The Register will doubtless give the debate.

There were two votes for Senator on Saturday.—On the first Graham received 70 Brown 57, Saunders 1; on the second, Graham 67, Brown 58, Saunders 38.

On Friday, Cad. Jones, Jr. beat J. F. Poindexter for Solicitor of the 4th Judicial Circuit. It is believed this one act will revolutionize Stokes and Surry counties, where "Old Point" is immensely popular.

It is said Saunders and Brown are very bitter against each other, and it will be a difficult matter (if not impracticable at all) to reconcile their friends. Many of the Whigs are for electing Saunders.

As the mail closes, I have the vote for Attorney General—no election.

Spier Whitaker,	Locofoco,	51

Thos. Bragg,	ditto,	49
J. B. Shepard,	ditto,	15

Candidates. I think Daniel will be elected, either he or Bragg.

Gov. Morehead's Message has received warm praise from the Northern Whig press. As a sample we copy the following paragraphs from a long article in the Richmond Whig, which does justice, not to the Governor, but to the State:—

Morehead's Message.—We have carefully read this State paper, in order to possess ourselves of the condition of our worthy, quiet, and very clever neighbor, the good old "North State," and of her affairs which it presents in every respect to her homely, old fashioned virtues. Such as the State, such seems its Chief Magistrate. Unaffected, unpretending, straightforward in every thing with almost a rustic plainness, he speaks clearly, and because he seeks no display shortly—a sort of merit almost unknown to American documents and speeches.

In this light, we must say that the Government of North Carolina is obviously in a most undemocratic condition of confusion; it is not in debt; its finances are somewhat more than so-called sound, its honor seems unshaken, the authority of the laws, but firmly maintained over an orderly people; there is no talk of either Repeal or Reform; and such, in a word, is the whole condition of the State, that the Governor is able, in his message generally, rather to propose measures and plans of Improvement, than to offer remedies for averting the ruin which bad Legislation and Public Immorality have in many States pulled down in hideous overthrow, upon the whole community.

We follow extracts and comments by the Whig:]

Several persons from the adjoining counties have expressed surprize at the fact that Gen. Dockery received a vote only for Speaker of the Senate at the organization of that body on the 21st ult., it is to state; that he was not a candidate for the Speakership. Col. Joyner, the Speaker at the last Session was the Whig candidate of course, and he voted for Gen. Dockery. No man in the Senate possesses more fully the qualifications for filling that chair, than Gen. Dockery, as is admitted by all who saw him presiding at the last session, during the temporary absence of Col. Joyner; and he would have received the full Whig vote if he had been the candidate.

CONGRESS.—The third and last session of the 27th Congress commenced on Monday last. We publish the President's Message in our next.

The Richmond Whig and the Raleigh Register have newly fitted themselves out with new suits of clear type, and both make a very handsome appearance. The Whig for the country, semi-weekly, is also greatly enlarged.

We are looking forward to the time when the Observer will likewise cast aside its old type and come out in new dress; but it cannot be in these hard times.—Our subscribers are better able to pay us more than we may hope for the change. At present we do but little towards paying current expenses, much less encouraging a heavy outlay.

THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.—The Louisville (Ky.) Intelligencer proposes, and the Whig papers in most of the States have already seconded the motion, that a Whig National Convention be held at Baltimore on the 2d Monday of May, 1843, to ratify the nomination already made by about half of the States, of HENRY CLAY as candidate for President, and to select a candidate for Vice President. We like the suggestion, and see no necessary to hold such a Convention to nominate a Vice President; and there is not the least danger, if Mr. Clay be living, that any difficulty will be experienced in his nomination.

The Darien Bank, at Macon, Georgia, has

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTION.—The second trial in towns where there was no choice at the regular election, has taken place, and 42 Whigs and 25 Locos were elected. There is still no choice in 41 cases. According to the Boston Whig papers, the Whigs have now a majority of 8, which will save the Senate, Governor and all other State officers. But the Locofoco papers in Boston claim a majority, the one of 2, and the other of 4.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—The Legislature assembled on the 28th ult. Hon. Angus Patterson was re-elected President of the Senate; W. E. Martin, Clerk; A. Gardner, Reading Clerk; J. D. Gaillard, Messenger; and J. B. Fulton Door-keeper.

Hon. W. F. Colcock was re-elected Speaker of the House; T. W. Glover, Clerk, William Baskin, Messenger; Jas. McElhany, Door-keeper.

On Tuesday, the Hon. Wm. C. Preston resigned his seat in the U. S. Senate. His term would have expired on the 4th of March next. Mr. McDuffie has been unanimously elected to fill his place, both for the unexpired term, and for the next term of six years.

Mr. Calhoun has resigned also, to take effect on the 4th of March. Judge Huger will succeed him.

Gov Richardson's Message was received on Tuesday. It is a prodigiously long document, about twice the ordinary length of a President's Message. It has some amusing points. Among them, is the apparent seriousness with which the Governor talks of the State militia having been her only protection against Federal power, in the days of Nullification; and to their "bold hearts and nerved and disciplined patriotism" will she again appeal, if necessary, &c.

"Whoe'er these boots shall dare displace,
Must meet Bombastes face to face."

The Governor says the State has an adequate supply of "arms, arsenals, and munitions of war." He denounces the present Tariff as the worst of all Tariffs; is willing, however, to wait a reasonable time for its repeal, before he "lets slip the dogs of war."

CANDIDATES.—It seems that our State is not singular in the thirst for office. The town of Columbia, S. C. (says the Chronicle,) is full of patriots, come to ask the privilege of serving the State. No less than 23 candidates for the single office of Secretary of State.

Bouck's official majority for Governor of New York is 21,882—For Bouck 208,070, for Bradish 186,088, for the Abolition candidate 7,262. In 1840, when Bouck ran against Seward, he received 216,808 votes, or 8,738 more than his present vote, and yet was beaten by Seward 5,203 votes. This shows what the Whigs can do in the Empire State, and we believe they will do it when Henry Clay is up.

SECRETS WORTH KNOWING.—The National Intelligencer quotes an article from Noah's N. Y. Union, a paper as much in the confidence of the President and his family as the Madisonian, which states, in substance, that the Democrats had made "overtures to support Mr. Tyler;" that he was accordingly "carrying out democratic doctrines in his Administration;" that further to cement the union of the parties, "it was deemed necessary by the President to re-model the Cabinet, to a certain extent; and that this was fully determined on, and would have been accomplished previous to the meeting of Congress. All which the Democracy asked would have been granted, when suddenly the Globe commenced an outrageous attack on the President. And this at the very moment when they must have known that the change they had urged so long, and with so much patriotism, was about to take place." The Union goes on to say that under such circumstances the President would not allow Mr. Webster and Mr. Forward to withdraw, (i. e. be kicked out;) that this conduct of the Globe is the "cause of the retention of the Cabinet."

Has Mr. Webster sunk so low as to hold his office after this? He was to be turned out, if the Globe had not vetoed the coalition and insisted on having Van Buren at once out as a candidate for the Presidency. And he is now "allowed" to remain in "till the expiration of the present Congress."

THE LOCOFOCO CANDIDATE.—Within a few days we have seen notices of meetings—

At Harrisburg, nominating Mr. Buchanan;—
At the same place, nominating Gen. Cass;—
At Philadelphia, nominating Mr. Van Buren;—
At Fayette, Missouri, nominating Col. Benton;—
At several places, nominating Col. Johnson;—

And in the Madisonian, nominating Mr. Tyler, with Gov. David R. Porter of Pennsylvania for Vice President.

With all these candidates in the field, to say nothing of Mr. Calhoun, the Locos will have their hands full to reconcile conflicting claims; and the Whigs, with their one only leader, will find the enemy much easier to conquer, when his forces come to be marshalled under one instead of seven leaders.

The Globe continues its bitter warfare on the President and his stupid organ, the Madisonian. The N. Y. Election, being construed as securing that State for Van, has induced the Globe to throw off all appearance of friendliness to the traitor Tyler.

LOCOFOCOISM.—The Albany Argus intimates that the Loco Foco majority in the next Congress will refuse to execute the law of the present Congress requiring the members of the House of Representatives to be elected by Districts. This is the very worst feature of Locofocoism. To repeal the law, would be their legitimate and rightful remedy, if they disapprove it; but they first propose to refuse respect and obedience to it, and then to repeal it, or treat it as a dead letter. One Congress to nullify a law of the preceding Congress! No more fatal step could be taken. Such a thing never was heard of before.

AGAIN.—The Tennessee Legislature again adjourned without complying with its constitutional duty to elect two Senators to Congress. The Locofocos in the Senate, where they have a majority, refused to go into an election, unless the Whigs, who have a majority on joint ballot, would pledge themselves to allow them to choose one of the Senators! A modest requirement truly! This is genuine Locofocoism! It will do its duty if it can profit thereby—not otherwise.

Hon. J. J. Williams, Member of Congress from Maryland, died on Friday last, of apoplexy.

EXTRAORDINARY ATTEMPT TO BRIBE.—On the 17th ult. the Sheriff of New York received a letter signed "W. W. W." covering ten $100 Bank Notes, with a promise of a like sum on the next day, "if he would decline and positively refuse to hang Colt." The writer says he has no acquaintance with Colt or any of his friends, but is actuated by "pure benevolence and humanity." He urges the Sheriff to compliance, by many considerations, among which is the very mistaken notion of some of the reformers of the day, "that we have no right to take the life of a fellow creature," and that "the true republican doctrine is, not to hang but to imprison for life for capital cases;" "that in all human probability the law enacting hanging for any offence will this winter be repealed; that Gov. Bouck will, as he has declared, pardon Colt—Gov. Bouck's opinions being well ascertained on this point." The writer closes with an exhortation to the Sheriff to "come out like Gen. Jackson: take upon yourself the responsibility—construe the laws and your duty as you understand them, and refuse to hang Colt." "You will receive the applause of the people, OF THE PARTY, and of the whole community."

Thus it will be seen that we are not yet rid of all the evils of Jacksonism. His lawless act, and bold bad assumption of "the responsibility," sustained by an infatuated people, are mingled with other outrageous moral and legal heresies, and hold out, with a large sum of money, as a temptation, to an officer to perjure himself, refuse to perform his own duty, and defeat the express injunctions of the law, sustained as it is by all the Authorities, Judicial and Executive, of the State. It is all done, too, under the false garb of "pure benevolence and humanity," as Gen. Jackson's acts were all falsely called "patriotic."—And to crown all, the applause of "the party," is to be his reward for accepting the bribe, and perjuring himself. This is in accordance with Mr. Calhoun's declaration, that "to prove corruption upon the Van Buren administration, only strengthens it in the affections of the party." To be a suborned, perjured, faithless officer, is held up to the Sheriff as a mode of receiving "the applause of the party."

The Sheriff sent the letter and the $1000 to the City Councils, the money to go into the Treasury, as some compensation to the city for the heavy expense it had incurred in Colt's trial, &c.

Lord Morpeth and the United States.—The Sheffield (England) Iris says: "It is said that Lord Morpeth is preparing his observations on the Americans for the press. The opinions of so distinguished a statesman, so honest a politician, and so good a man, with regard to the Americans and their institutions, would be particularly useful at this period. All classes of politicians would look with anxiety, and be prepared to receive with reverence, his lordship's opinion with regard to the working of the ballot and "the man suffrage" in America; points that will inevitably be brought forward and discussed at the next session of Parliament."

POSTSCRIPT.

On Monday, a third vote was taken for Senator, which gave Graham 68 Brown 58, Saunders 37.

A second and third vote for Attorney General resulted in the election of Spier Whitaker of Halifax. Whitaker 82, Bragg 80.

The Register states, that out of 170 members of the Legislature, only 50 were in the last Legislature.

Legislative Committees.—It will be seen by the Report of the Senate's proceedings on Friday, that Mr. Dockery requested to be excused from serving on the Committee for enclosing the Public Square, assigning for his reason, the composition of the Committee. We have subsequently examined the complexion of the various Committees where ANY expenditure is required, and by some sudden love, which both Speakers have taken for their Whig opponents, find, that in Committees consisting of five, they have four Whigs to one Locofoco; in Committees of three, two Whigs to one Loco! Should the Whig majority report in favor of the measures entrusted to their consideration, the cry forthwith will be "Whig Extravagance." Should they adopt a contrary course, and report "adversely," the "Standard," and kindred prints, will inform the people, that the Lunatic Asylum, the Penitentiary, the enclosure of the Public Square, &c. &c., were matters of vital importance, but were defeated by the miserable Whigs.—Ral. Register.

The Northern Mail.—The Madisonian contains the following paragraph:

"The Postmaster General, sensible of the difficulties attending the steam boat mail down the Cape Fear and thence to Charleston, has ordered a route from Raleigh to Columbia to be advertised, upon which he promises himself a more regular, if not as speedy a mail from the North, not only to Charleston, but to the entire South. In the meantime, every thing in his power will be done, during the existence of the present contract, to enforce a compliance with its stipulations."

The "Hartford Times," Loco Foco, calls upon the President to veto his own measure. It says:—

"The scheme of a Government Bank, or Exchequer to issue notes and deal in exchange, would, if adopted, be a terrible political engine, dangerous to liberty as well as destructive to trade, and were Congress so weak or so wicked as to adopt it, we should hope that President Tyler would, on further consideration, veto it, although a matter of his own suggestion."

This is cool advice, to say the least of it.

Hon. Levi Woodbury asserted at the Loco-Foco meeting in this city that the operation of the present tariff was to enrich the already rich manufacturer.

Now what are the facts?—This same Hon. Levi Woodbury is a stockholder in the largest manufacturing Corporation in the State of New Hampshire—and has not received one cent from the investment for two years, and will not in all probability receive any thing for some time to come. Does this look like enriching the already rich manufacturer?

We will venture to assert that this same rich manufacturer would be glad to dispose of all his stocks in manufacturing corporations at about two thirds of their original cost, and the same is true of all similar Corporations.—Salem Gazette.

NEW SEMINARY.

ELLIOTT GREEN, ASHEBOROUGH, N. C.

Mrs. Dr. B. H. WHITNEY, (late of Troy, New York,) Principal.

THIS INSTITUTE, for the moral, intellectual, and physical improvement of Young Ladies, will be open for the reception of Scholars the first Monday in January.

The location, in point of health and morality, is not to be surpassed in the South.

It is to be hoped, that those only will seek admission to this Institute who desire improvement, and are willing to make systematic efforts to obtain it.

Unhappily the intellectual education of Females at the present day is not what it should be, nor what it might be. A great number of Young Ladies rather think themselves fascinating than scientific. It is too true a large class are taught less to think than to shine. If they glitter, it matters little whether it be the glitter of gilding or of gold.

In this Institute, it will be the constant aim of the Principal to call forth the powers of mind committed to her charge, and to direct them to the investigation of truth.

Her Pupils will be taught to think, to reason, to feel, and that energetic effort and continued application are the only means by which the dormant intellect can be quickened, and the most contracted mind made to expand.

He was discovered, a few days since, in the upper part of Robeson county, making his escape with a negro woman belonging to Mrs. Campbell, of Marion District, S. C. The said Campbell is about thirty-five or forty years of age, light hair, about half of it grey; his neck has some appearance of being marked with small pox, and his chin has a hollow in it. He has rather an impediment in his speech, and walks with his body a little inclined forward. He had on a white hat with a broad brim, black jeans homespun coat and pantaloons, tolerable fine. It is supposed that his true name is David Campbell. He was last seen at the house of Mr. Murdock Campbell, in the county of Cumberland, N. C., and in all probability he is still lurking about the said Campbell's.

PETERS' PILLS.

THE wonderful cures effected by this Medicine are the all engrossing subjects of the day. Go where you will, and you hear nothing but Mr. Such-a-One has been cured by PETERS' VEGETABLE PILLS; or, you know Mrs. So-and-So was at the point of death, but she has been cured by Dr. Peters' Pills; or, are you not glad that Miss —— has been restored to health by Dr. Peters' wondrous Medicine.

Really, this Medicine must be very good, or it could not cure so many. It is good. For many years it has passed on the "even, silent tenor of its way," curing hundreds of persons who were wrangling with death. But now its onward course is impetuous.

It is as impossible to stay the demand for this Medicine as to hush the rushing wind.

A life Medicine that will procrastinate death for many years, shall it not enter every house? Shall it not be used by every individual? Let no man say, I don't want it. You know not what to-morrow may bring forth. All should use this remedy, and remember that health is the first blessing from God.

They do indeed restore the health of the body, because they purify and invigorate the blood, and their good effects are not counterbalanced by any inconvenience; being composed entirely of vegetables, they do not expose those who use them to danger, and their effects are as certain as they are salutary; they are daily and safely administered to infancy, youth manhood and old age, and to women in the most critical and delicate circumstances, they do not disturb or shock the animal functions, but restore their order and re-establish their health; and for all the purposes which a vegetable purgative, or certain cleanser of the whole system are required, they stand without a rival—they are allowed to be all that can be accomplished in Medicine, both for power and innocence.

TO FAMILIES.

ROWAND'S IMPROVED

TONIC MIXTURE.

THOSE who would have recourse to a Family Medicine for FEVER AND AGUE, Dyspepsia, and Nervous Weaknesses, should discriminate between the "thousand and one" remedies constantly heralded forth to the public, (the same now as in former times past,) and that almost universally successful prescription called

ROWAND'S IMPROVED TONIC MIXTURE.

A few remarks will serve to illustrate the difference. In the first place, the operation of the Tonic Mixture in the cure of Fever and Ague is upon entirely new and peculiar, yet safer principles. 2nd. It not only promptly arrests the course of the chill when punctually and perseveringly used, but it soon restores the wonted functions of the general system to a perfectly healthy state; when relapses are more liable to ensue than an attack of the disease in one who has never had it before. Thirdly: The Tonic Mixture, springs up at once under its benign influence, and gives forth an earnest of returning health and vigour. Fourthly: Producing more or less effect on the bowels, the cause of the disease passes off in the way most strongly indicated by nature. Fifthly: Its effects on the system are uniformly mild and safe, as well as efficient, and it is well adapted to the feeblest infant, simply by a modification of the dose, as to the most vigorous adult. Many other considerations, of the utmost importance to the anxious parents and invalids, might be enumerated here, but the above are a few of the points of contrast, in comparison with the remedies generally resorted to in professional and family practice from which a proper judgment may be formed in selecting the remedy.

N. B. With a view to re-establish entire confidence in the efficiency of the "Rowand's Improved Tonic Mixture," to effect a lasting cure of Fever and Ague, the Proprietor restores the original guarantee viz: The money shall be returned in every case wherein the remedy has been punctually used without producing the desired effect.
